Distinguished Period Residence Nestled Within 4.5 Acres With Canal Frontage & Mooring.

Set amidst approximately 4.5 acres of serene Surrey countryside, this exquisite period residence offers timeless character and charm, ideal for equestrian enthusiasts and lovers of nature alike. With a rich history dating back to the late 1800s, the property beautifully preserves many of its original features while offering direct access to tranquil canal-side walks. Its unique blend of heritage and functionality presents a rare opportunity to own a home that seamlessly marries the past with the present. Thoughtfully extended and impeccably maintained, the property is tailored for modern-day living while retaining its traditional elegance.

Positioned between the prestigious Wisley Golf Club and Pyrford Lakes Golf Course, this home enjoys an enviable location within walking distance of West Byfleet village and its mainline railway station.

Approaching the home, guests are greeted by an impressive entrance flanked by wrought iron gates, setting the tone for the distinctive character found within. Inside, the house boasts vaulted ceilings, exposed flagstones, and an array of charming fireplaces—including a remarkable inglenook hearth—each adding to its rustic allure. The main residence features a country-style kitchen/breakfast room with vaulted ceiling, a grand drawing room, a spacious dining room with exposed brick walls and vaulted ceiling, and three additional reception areas, offering abundant space for both family life and entertaining.

Accommodation includes five bedrooms, with the principal suite standing out for its Juliet balcony overlooking the manicured grounds, a luxurious en-suite bathroom, and a private living room. In addition to the main house, the estate includes a self-contained one-bedroom annexe, a detached brick-built games room, and a separate gymnasium—ideal for multi-generational living or hosting guests.

Externally, the grounds are equally impressive, offering a complete equestrian setup with stables, a tack room, and independent access to a large paddock. The landscaped gardens include two ornamental ponds, a stream, and rare canal frontage with mooring on the Wey Navigation Canal. Residents benefit from excellent transport links, proximity to top-tier schools, and the rich amenities of both West Byfleet and the vibrant county town of Guildford—just a short drive away—making this a truly exceptional countryside retreat.
