

Homes of Distinction

WOKING

Kingfield Green, Woking, Surrey, GU22

An exclusive gated enclave of just three distinguished contemporary residences.

An exceptional new development comprising of just three detached residences, each carefully crafted to the highest standard by renowned developer, Victus Homes. Set within a secure gated enclave opposite the village green, these contemporary homes represent a rare opportunity to acquire a property that combines striking modern design with uncompromising quality.

Each house has been thoughtfully designed with its own distinctive character, blending elegant architectural features with the finest in modern living. The specification includes underfloor heating throughout, triple-glazed windows, and a secure video intercom system. The luxurious Schüller kitchens are fitted with Quartz worktops and premium Miele integrated appliances, while the expansive open-plan living spaces flow seamlessly to private gardens and roof terraces, creating the perfect setting for entertaining or quiet relaxation.

Generously proportioned accommodation is arranged across multiple levels, with each home featuring four bedrooms and three beautifully appointed bathrooms. Light-filled double-aspect reception rooms offer an impressive sense of space, while the careful attention to detail ensures a harmonious balance between style, comfort, and practicality.

Outside, the gardens are predominantly laid to lawn and complemented by paved patios, providing both privacy and the ideal setting for al fresco dining or quiet relaxation.

Perfectly positioned within walking distance of Woking Town Centre and its highly regarded mainline station, 'Penlan' also benefits from the wealth of shopping, dining, and cultural attractions the town has to offer. From theatres and galleries to an array of restaurants and cafés, there is always something to enjoy, while the surrounding Surrey countryside provides endless opportunities for scenic walks, cycle routes, and outdoor pursuits.
