Worth viewing because...

This is an exciting opportunity for those wishing to purchase a comfortable character cottage in the heart of the thriving village of East Budleigh close to the free public car park, community shop, church and The Sir Walter Raleigh public house. An early viewing is strongly recommended.

In more detail...

The accommodation on the ground floor offers a spacious living room with exposed ceiling beams and a fireplace. Doors leading to bedroom 2 and the kitchen. The second bedroom being on the ground floor could alternatively be used as a home office or dining room. The bespoke kitchen has a range of modern units with fitted shaker style base units in a stone colour finish, solid oak worktops with tiled surround and inset stainless steel sink. There is also an integral electric oven and induction hob, plumbing for a washing machine, appliance space, exposed ceiling beams and a door out to the rear garden. On the first floor is an impressive double bedroom with a deep wardrobe/cupboard and bathroom/w.c. The bathroom has a rear aspect window and a modern white suite incorporating a feature free standing single ended roll-top bath with an antique style mixer tap and shower head attachment. Other features include gas central heating and a delightful cottage style enclosed rear garden with a patio area, useful shed and side gate.

The village of East Budleigh...

"East Budleigh is a charming village in an area of outstanding beauty just 2 miles inland from the small coastal town of Budleigh Salterton. East Budleigh has its own facilities with a community public house and shop, primary school, local bus routes and a village hall. Budleigh Salterton boasts a good range of shopping facilities as well as a health centre, churches, library and a museum. Various golf courses are also readily accessible. The Cathedral City of Exeter is within some 15 miles to the West."

Bear in mind...

The current owner has sympathetically modernised the cottage to a high standard throughout retaining much of its original charm and character. This would make an ideal permanent or holiday home.
