DESCRIPTION

This charming, south-facing ground-floor apartment offers two bedrooms and has been finished to a high standard while retaining attractive original features. Ideally situated within walking distance of the town centre, railway station and beach, it combines period character with modern convenience. The spacious sitting and dining room features double doors opening onto a veranda-style, south-facing terrace - perfect for relaxing or outdoor dining. The property also includes a modern fitted kitchen, two well-proportioned bedrooms, one with fitted cupboards, and a stylish bathroom featuring a Victorian-style freestanding bath. Further benefits include double glazing, central heating, access to communal gardens and an allocated parking space. This characterful apartment would make an excellent permanent home, coastal retreat or investment property.
